Fontaine Spray Suppression Welcomes New Sales Manager

Springfield, TN (November 14, 2022)

Fontaine Spray Suppression is pleased to announce the addition of Ross Hill as Canadian Sales Manager. Based out of the Nu-Line production facility in Hamilton, Ontario, Ross will be handling sales in the Canadian market for Nu-Line, Fleetline and Hogebuilt, all brands owned by Fontaine Spray Suppression.

Ross worked for Nu-Line in various areas of production for 3 years while attending business school. Following his graduation, he entered the transportation industry and held roles as a logistics account manager, freight broker and truck dispatcher. His employment experience in multiple aspects of the trucking industry will give him a unique perspective as he works to meet customers' needs.

Fontaine Spray Suppression is the industry leader in spray suppression products with the three strongest brands in the business: Fleetline, Hogebuilt and Nu-Line. For over 75 years, these brands have manufactured a wide array of products including fenders, mounting components and mud flap hanger brackets using stainless steel, aluminum, and poly materials. Our commitment to quality and customer satisfaction is what drives us to be the best in the industry.
